Lawrence Paulhus

Once again this year, the honor of dedication of the yearbook has been given to Mr. Lawrence Paulhus. Year after year he involves himself in and touches the lives of so many through teaching, advice, and by simply caring. He supports his his students in everything they do and will offer any help they may need.

Mr. Paulhus is a special man and a great teacher. Thanks goes out to Mr. Paulhus for another year of outstanding teaching from the graduating class of 1996.

Time For Class . . . .

Harold G. Devine, Jr. Ed.D.

I once heard someone say that we had better pay attention to the future because that is where we will spend the rest of our lives. Fascination with the future has inspired many great thinkers and writers. FUTURE SHOCK written by Alvin Toffler may be as relevant today as it was some 35 years ago when he wrote it. American patriot, Patrick Henry said, "I like the dreams of the future better than the history of the past." "The future is the most expensive luxury in the world", Thornton Wilder; "He is a bad man who does not pay to the future at least as much as he has received from the past", A.W. Pollard.

Have you ever thought of what the future holds for you? Our graduates will soon face the future away from the security and support of your school community. To our graduating seniors, your future is now. May your future be filled with good fortune, true friends, and much happiness.

I hope our remaining students will think often about the future. No greater opportunity exists than that provided at Joseph Case High School. Insure your future by investing your efforts in school today.

Harold Devine, Jr., Ed.D.
Superintendent of Schools

Joseph D. Santos Principal

Dear Class of 1996:

Four short years ago you entered Joseph Case High School as frightened, awkward freshmen. Now you are leaving as confident, decision-making young adults ready to meet the challenges of the 21st century. Your search for knowledge has really just begun, for education is a life long process that will not end here. You will continue to learn as you travel life's highways.

Best of luck as you begin your journey!

Joseph D. Santos,
Principal

Christine M. Stanton Vice-Principal

The four years you have spent at Joseph Case High School become only pieces in the larger puzzle of who you are. The nature of your existence demands you to search how to master reality. If you arrive, it can be said that you never fully arrive. The truth is that there are destinations beyond destinations, you will forever follow your dreams. They will tell you who you are, what you want and in which direction you should go. You will always have choices that you can turn into goals. Strive high and become one with them.

In Memoriam

As counselor, teacher and coach, Mr. Chapman's goal in life was to help others and encourage them to reach their goals. He touched the lives of everyone he came in contact with. He gave others the hope to struggle and win. He believed no dream was unreachable.

His heart was filled with extreme delight to see a smile on a determined face. Proud and satisfied with the smallest feats, he embraced us with love touching the lives of all he met. The world learned valuable treasures from this special man and achieved greatness because of his kindness and wisdom. We will feel sorrow for the loss of this wonderful man. Yet we will prosper from the tokens of special love and caring that he has left in each of us. He has taught us to set no limits on our happiness.

The Class Of 1996 Dedicates This
Page To The Memory Of Craig Mello
1978-1995

Though Craig's life was tragically cut short, He will always be remembered by all the crazy things he did like wearing shorts in the freezing cold and the pig squeels in the hallway. Most of all he will be remembered as a caring person who was always there for his friends whenever he was needed. His memories will be with all of us for the rest of our lives especially mine. You're always in my heart and always will be.
